

i am a fishing guide and run a base camp in the laguna madre. my ONLY source of weather in this remote area is via satelite radio (xfm). i strongly discourace you to enable these services due to the NAB's will to self control the market. these are changing times we live, and i, as an american, chould so be able to choose when, where, and however i should receive my information.
sincerely, david rowsey